Hang or place your work in our mostly visited place, the toilet gallery. You can present a finished work for the entire 3 weeks of the Winterwerft festival. We also invite people with a work in process, or a mixed media performance that can be presented on a certain time. Explain how you want to present your work, how you want to develop or maybe even want to get in dialog with other works around you.

Workshop leader open atelier

Offer a workshop where you are open to use different media like painting, drawing, sculpturing, collage, or other analog or mixed media. How to trigger creativity and come to ideas by working with the hands.

Open call film

You have a short or full length film that will be shown in the artist&recidency period to the workers, artists and participants, but not for audience that will visit the festival. When you are able to visit the festival, there's a possibility for a little Q&A.

We like to work in a sharing system, you have the chance to present your work here or share your knowledge in the form of a workshop and do some volunteer shifts concerning the festival or in the household. We offer you a 3 week artist&recidency place where you can watch performances, join a lot of workshops and meet a lot of artists, performers, ect. You get a little insight of living in a theater community and watch the working process from nearby.
